

DANIEL KISLIAKOV

Doctor of Philosophy Candidate at Trinity College at the University of Divinity in Melbourne, Australia. Doctoral thesis focus on the history of the theology and philosophy of the Russian Religious Renaissance, with an interest in Sergius Bulgakov, Nicholas Afanasiev, Georges Florovsky, and other and philosophers of the 20th century. Interest in Russian diaspora and the wider context: interaction with the West and the ecumenical movement. I have a strong academic interest in the interplay between geopolitics, the development of modern thought, personhood and anthropology – in theology, philosophy and other disciplines – its impact on the global and sociocultural environment.
